this week—Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

C. Alexander, Jr., and his sister Miss Carrie of Paris, gave a delightful dinner party recently to friends from a distance. Misses Johnsons, of this city, were among the guests.

Lindsey Coleman has been succeeded by S. A. Turner as baggage master at the C. & O. office. Mr. Coileman was very accommodating and no doubt his experience here will bring to him a lucrative position. Success to you Lindsey.

Messrs. J. N. Keisco, of Maysville, Hansel Kennedy of Carlisle, and S.
S. Cassidy, of the Bath County Democrat, Owingsville, are the Committee of the Ninth district to receive Mr.
Bryan Tuesday at Lexington and exhort him to Mayville, where he will speak at 7 p.m.

Harrison, Ind., are visiting relatives in this city. Mr. Cassidy is a silver Democrat in his 75 year, and is the oldest brother of M. M. and A. J.
Cassidy. This is his first visit to Kentucky in 15 years. In his section there are many Republicans who are solid for Bryan without waiting for the consent of other nations.

Condensed Testimony.

Chas. H. Hood, Broker and Manufacturer's Agent, Columbus, Ohio, testifies that Dr. King's New Discovery has no equal as a Cough remedy. J.

D. Brown, proprietor of the St. James Hotel, Ft. Wayne, Ind., testifies that he was cured of a cough of two year's standing, caused by La Grippe by Dr.
King's New Discovery.

B. F. Merrill, Baldwinsville, Mass., says that he has used and recommended it and never knew it to fail and would rather have any other doctor because it always cures. Mrs. Hemming, 222 E-25th St., Chicago, always keeps it at hand and has no fear of Croup, because it instantly relieves. Free Trial

Sure to Win.

The people recognize and appreciate real merit. That is why Hood's Sarsaparilla has the largest sales in the world.

Merit in medicine means the power to cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures—absolutely, permanently cures.

It is the one true blood purifier. Its superior merit is an established fact, and merit wins.

Hood's Pills are easy to take, easy to operate. Cure Indigestion, headache.

Notice.

I am very desirous of having a uniformity of text books in all the Public Schools in the county. I have printed in my office of the late adoption, which teachers and trustees will please call and get and conform to the same as soon as possible.

I. N. HORTON, County Supt.

The Lexington trials, always the greatest trotting carnival of the year, will begin Tuesday, Oct. 6th, and continue ten days, when program amounts to the sum of $75,000. The leading performers, including the greatest harness horses of the turf will be on hand to battle for the money.

The walls of the residence of W. A.
Sutton will be completed this week and will be ready for the roof.

had an appointment to speak at Beattyville on Thursday. Circuit Court being in session, there was a large crowd in town. Court adjourned for the speaking. Judge O'Rear kindly agreed to divide time, so H. B. Kinlossing, who was in town for the purpose, responded to Judge O'Rear. Both parties are enthusiastic.
We are informed that there are some men on both sides who will bolt their nominees.

There was an enthusiastic meeting of Democrats at the school house near iron bridge over Grassy Lick Creek, Aaron's Run precinct, on last Thursday night. The meeting was addressed by C. P. Chenault, Judge B. F.
Day, J. R. Turner and A. A. Hazelrige. A Bryan club was formed with everybody present as members. One hundred were enrolled. S. S. Priest

The State Convention of Gold Democrats on Aug. 25 in Illinois nominated for Governor Gen. John C. Black.

The General declined the great honor thrust upon him by men anxious to save this country. In the letter of declination the General says:

I recognize the disinterested character and lofty aims of your organization; that it seeks to establish the Democracy upon its ancient foundation and amidst its ancient principles, a refuge for its erring brethren in the future and a safeguard of free government. I recognize the useful and devotion of the men present in your convention to principle and Democracy, but I am further convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that the only effect in the election of my candidacy would be to diminish the chances of one or the other of these gentlemen for election; Tanner, Republican, and Allard, Democrat.

Would it not have been wise and patriotic if Mr. Palmer and Mr. Buckner had, recognizing the uselessness of their candidacy, said we do not wish to interfere with the election of Mr. McKinley or Mr. Bryan. Then we decline. Anyhow that was what Palmer will lay him on the shelf. Gen. Buckner will, we suppose, get some votes, however.

Hailed with satisfaction at Republican Headquarters, "is an expression of approval concerning a Democratic in high circles.

Why don't the members of the Mc-Kinley Aid Society openly declare for McKinley and quit trying to make people think they are Democrats, and contending for Democratic principles.

If a man wants to change his party and principles, let him change, accept the name, principles and methods of your new love and don't sail under deceptive colors.

He can be seen every day and burning every night over the entire town and with each week he adds new consumers. The machinery he has kept in perfect condition. We have now a light equal to that in any city.

city, to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.
This young couple are well known in this community. They will spend attractive resort, a place suited to medium love and delight. A lovers.

We honor great and true men and delight to respect their views, no difference how widely they differ from us, but we emphatically will not encourage a man who has, by the will of the people, been put in the highest positions, and by their own misdemeanor disgraced both to themselves and their constituents.

W. C. P. Breckinridge will speak here Thursday on the political issues.
Mr. Breckinridge has great speaking powers, and that all have been said as a first-rate orator.

As a first-rate orator, he is a feather weight. Such men going through the country are not a credit to any party. What he is, is of his own making. If it was right ever to turn Mr. Breckinridge down, it is right to turn him.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Grassy Lick.

Misses Stella Ogg and Maud Quinen, of Mt. Sterling, were visiting the family of H. K. Green last week.

Rev. John Evans and N. Mason were in Madison county last week and bought 79 head of feeding cattle at $3 and $4 cents, weight 1,000 lbs.
Rev. A. J. Ross and wife, of Carmel, Ky., are spending a few days with the family of A. Oresar. Rev.
Ross will attend the State Conference at Somerset this week.

Fred Riddle has completed the best school house in the county for district N. 26 on the farm of Richard Stoer at the cost of $500. Mrs. Alice Gay has been employed to teach the school.

The Baptist Association held at M.
Carrel, Clark county, last week was well represented by their different churches in the State. A good deal of fine preaching and much business was transacted, and a large audience attended every day.

Lexington will be represented by the free silver advocates to-day from this section. If all preachers in the State were as solid for free silver as Grassy Lick is, Bryan and Sewall would carry the State by the old time majority say 45,000.

The thunder storm of last Saturday night was rather frightening to some of the citizens of this section. The display of lightning was wonderful.
At the residence of J. H. Mason a large locust tree, standing within 15 feet of the house, was struck, tearing the tree to pieces and throwing the shivered pieces of timber on the metal roof. The family thought the house was struck. A large farm bell was hanging in the tree and it escaped uninjured.

Rev. J. H. Scott, of Hazel Green, has been called to the pastorate of the Pleasant Hour Colored Baptist Church of this city. He has accepted the call and his labors began on the 7th. Rev.
Scott, assisted by Rev. C. U. Johnson, is now conducting a meeting at the Pleasant Hour Church and concerned interest is being taken.

Rev. G. L. Surber, formerly pastor of the Christian church in this city has gone to Nashville, Tenn., to assume the presidency of the Southern Christian College, a new college for girls. His wife will be matron and his children will teach in the school.
His wife has won the hearts of all whom he has come in contact with.
By the full indorsement of both of these church, the people expect the conference to return Dr. Johnson to them, as no other preacher will satisfy them, nor can do the work he has done.

On Thursday night, September 17, Elder J. C. Pieratt will begin a protracted meeting at Salt Lick, Bath county. Sunday following being the fourth Sunday in September, he will preach the funeral of the wife of Simpson Bleivins at 10:30 a. m., and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon he will preach the funeral of W. M. Hurst's child at White Sulphur.

On Friday night he will preach the funeral of Mrs. John T. Tandy.

On Saturday evening one James Bush, a resident of Clark county, with a reputation anything but enviable, and who, it is said, was a demon with his family, learning that his former wife (she recurred a divorce about two years ago) was at her sister's Mrs.
James Tandy's in this city, came here to Mrs. Tandy's house, and when an opportunity presented itself, shot Mrs. Bush through the breast, the ball coming out under the right shoulder blade. Bush then made his escape but not far away at his home in the Cane Creek farm and is now in jail. Mrs. Bush is seriously hurt, with very slight chances of her recovery.

Shot His Former Wife.

Hair Restored to Natural Color.

I have used many preparations for restoring hair to natural color, but never had satisfactory results till I used Zulu Vulture; it will restore any hair or beard to its natural color in three weeks. If it does not restore your hair to its natural color or make any color of hair darker in three weeks, they will return your stamp. This preparation is so fair that thousands are using it. It is harmless but never fails.

Why can't big money be made by selling Zulu Vulture from house to house?

Many Deaths Result From Carelessness.

Jack Wilson, ex-Sheriff of Lawrence county, was badly mangled in his sawmill pit while at work near Louisville, on Sept. 7.

Death of J. C. B. Duff

Our county has sustained a great loss. Death has removed from our midst a prosperous, influential, highly respected Christian gentleman, Mr. J.
C. B. Duff a farmer and merchant of the Spencer neighborhood. He died on Tuesday night, September 8, 1896, at his home on Spencer Creek after a sickness of about 10 days duration.

The technical name of the disease is purpura hemorrhagica, and is a disease characterized by excessive loss of blood.

He was the son of S. A. and Sarah Duff and was born in Wolfe county in 1856.

With his father's family he moved to this county in 1871. He was married in 1878 to Miss Emma Perry. Their home has been blessed with three children.
Nineteen years ago he became a Christian and for several years was a deacon of his congregation, interested in Sunday School and other Christian activities. His funeral service was conducted at Spencer church on Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Duff were married by Rev. Bells Metcalf, and the funeral service was conducted by him, as at the time of Mr. Duff's death, Rev.
Metcalf was engaged in a protracted meeting at Jeffersonville near by.

The Masonic Lodge, of which Mr.
Duff was an honored member attended the funeral and administered the burial rights of that order.

We deeply regret the loss of so good a man, yet we sorrow not as those who have no hope. He sleeps in Jesus.
This thought is our comfort. To his sorrowing wife, children and extensive circle of kindred we extend a brother's sympathy, and commend them to our loving heavenly Father.

JEFFERSON ON THE JUDICIARY.

Judges Not Arbiters of Constitutional Questions.

PEOPLE THE ULTIMATE POWER.

The Single Tribunal Idea Is a Very Dangerous Doctrine and One Which Would Place Us Under the Despotism of an Oligarchy—Judges are as Honest as Other Men and Not More So.

If there is one plank in the Chicago platform which the Republican newspapers of the country have more frequently misconstrued than another, and against which much of their venomous criticism has been directed, it is that which relates to federal interferences in local affairs, or more especially to what is termed in the platform as "government by injunction."

So soon had the platform received the attention of the nation, more attention than the cry was raised by the Republicans in all parts of the country that the plank in question was a deliberate fling at the supreme court. It was even claimed by some of these zealous guardians of the Constitution that the Democratic party, in adopting the income tax plank, was aiming at a political change in the organization of that tribunal.

It is needless to say that such ridiculous charges as these were inspired by the demagogic rank political hatred rather than by any real knowledge of the welfare of the nation. No man of any intelligence whose familiarity with the course of judicial proceedings in this country for the last few years is of such a character as to enable him to judge properly of what the language means can possibly see anything offensive in the plank.

That the Democratic party had a right to enter its protest against arbitrary and unconstitutional federal interferences is upheld not only by the spirit of the constitution, but also by the express language of Thomas Jefferson himself.

The Standard (Fla.) Chronicle publishes a letter dated Sept. 20, 1832, and addressed to William C. Jarvis, at that time editor of the New York Republican, in which Mr. Jefferson makes use of the following terse and explicit language:

"You seem to consider the judges as the ultimate arbiters of all constitutional questions. But I understand that, as the Constitution itself is silent on the subject, it is left to the people of the nation to decide the question. So they have, and the power, and the right, to decide for themselves what the Constitution means."

The single tribunal idea is a very dangerous doctrine, indeed, and one which would place us under the despotism of an oligarchy. Our judges are as honest as other men and not more so. They have, with other men, the same passions for party, for power, and the same contempt for their country. Theirs is, 'Bonum iudicium est amplioris jurisdictionis,' and their power the more dangerous, as they are in office for life and not responsible to other functionaries, to the electors, or to the people. The constitution has erected no such single tribunal, knowing that to whatever hands it should be given, the corruptions of time and party, its members would become despots. It has moreover wisely made all the departments of government coextensive within themselves. If the legislative fails to pass laws for a census, for paying the judges and other officers of government, for establishing a militia, for naturalization, as prescribed by the constitution, the judges cannot issue their mandates to them."

Nothing could possibly be more direct than the language in which Mr. Jefferson addressed himself to this important question. Surely if found, of the Democratic party would so express himself in regard to an evil which at that time was only threatened or apprehended the party itself can enter its protest based upon similar views when the evil comes. Mr. Jefferson plainly foretold what the legislative party would do when it would come when there would inevitably be a clash between the legislative, judicial and executive functions of the government, or rather a time when each of these functions would be compelled to exercise its prerogative in one, and that the just man, Mr. Jefferson deserved that witherspoon of statesmanship which made him one of the greatest men of his day.

Let us be blunt. Democratic therefore, the plank of the Chicago platform which has been the subject of much abuse, perhaps, than any other, is directly in accord with the expressed views of Mr. Jefferson himself.

To repeat again the words of the great Dennis:

"I know no safe depositary of the ultimate powers of society but the people themselves, and if we think them not enlightened enough to exercise their power with a wise discretion, the remedy is to inform them, but to inform their discretion by education."

If the people themselves have not the right to enter their protest against the evil of the judicial party, what quarter does the single tribunal court?

In the clear light which the great founder of the party throws upon the Chicago platform, and especially the plank in question, no one can truthfully bring the charge that the platform is not a plain and outspoken expression of genuine Democracy.—Atlanta Constitution.

The act of 1873 dropped the silver dollar from the standard coinage of the country, and whether this act be considered a crime or not there is no doubt of its farreaching and disastrous consequences.

For Value Received.

The subsidized newspapers are evidently of the opinion that they are not answerable for the evil which it announces once a week that the silver movement is declining. We trust they will keep to these unannounced to the bitter end.—Exchange.

A GOLDBUG'S REPLY.

The Best It Could Do With a Correspondent's Question.

A recent correspondent of the New York Evening Post asks this question:

"The demand for gold has greatly increased of late years, and no such increase has taken place in its production. Ergo its absolute value—i.e., its purchasing power—must increase—i.e., its value—has in late years risen and will continue to rise. Given the foregoing statement, as to the value of gold, it is evident that it will be unfair to every debtor, for on the maturity of his loan he will be forced, not only to return the principal, but also to pay interest and to return some additional amount in value representing the rise in the value of gold in that time."

I should be obliged if the able writer who has already disposed of many financial fallacies in his columns would briefly explain if this is untrue.

This is the "able" reply of the editor of The Evening Post.

The answer is coming through this argument and constituting its warp and woof is that after people have made contracts for dollars, the value of which is to be paid in dollars, when the contracts mature the dollars shall be worth neither more nor less than they were when the contracts were made. The author is prepared to say that such a system might not be devised. We only say that it has not yet been devised, and that it is not likely that we must depend on chance or on trial by jury. The silverites themselves say that it is not possible to make contracts for dollars in every such case as impractical, and its costs would probably be like those in the case of the gold standard. The author is prepared to say that debts are infinite as to the amount and duration. The point is that debts are infinite as to the amount and duration.

Physician Prescribes Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine.
Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

My daughter Matilda, aged 16, had suffered from a severe attack of the disease and now, when her entire right side was numb and nearly paralyzed. We consulted a physician and he prescribed Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. She took three bottles before we saw any certain signs of improvement, but after that she began to improve very fast and I now think she is entirely cured. She has taken nine bottles of the Nervine, but has not taken any more. Price 25 cents. Dr. Miles' Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Questions and Answers From the Enquirer.

If a debt has been made with England by the United States, with an agreement to pay in coin, could the same debt be paid now in silver dollars or silver certificates, the debt being made between 1873 and 1878?

2. If silver is again put on equal footing with gold, could England refuse to receive our silver in payment of debts except in cases where debts were specially made payable in gold?

A. S. H.

1. All our national debt held in England was made specifically payable in coin. That was the contract and there is no dishonesty; but, on the contrary, it is both honest and proper and right to pay these debts in what we propose. Coin at the time meant gold or silver coin, and it is only justice to ourselves to use silver dollars or silver certificates for this purpose.

By paying them in gold alone, we are actually making them a present of 100 cents on the dollar.

Because some of our most enlightened citizens in this country object to making this present, they are called Anarchists, repudiators and other harsh names.

2. She could not. The provision in the Bland-Allison act of 1878 making silver coin a full legal tender except where specifically provided in the contract, was only one of the many ways in which our officials have discriminated against silver. It was an invitation to make contracts specifically payable in gold and thereby enhance its value.

If the Democratic party is successful this fall, this foolish disjunction against silver will be wiped out, and silver coin will be made the equal of gold coin in the payment of all debts and dues, both public and private.

Another Smart Woman.

My husband is poor but proud and he does not want me to work. As I have nothing to do I get restless, and after reading in your paper Mrs. Russell's experience selling self-healing flatirons I concluded I would try it.

I wrote to J. F. Casey & Co., St. Louis, Mo., and they treated me so nicely that I felt very much encouraged. As soon as I got my sample iron I started out, and sold 8 irons the first day clearing $12. I have not sold less than $8 any day since, and one day sold 17. I now have $226 clear money, and my husband does not know I have been working at all, but I am afraid he will be mad when I tell him. I have done right or should I quit work and leave him to struggle alone. ANXIOUS WIFE.

You are doing just right. Your husband should be proud of you go ahead and show the world what an energetic woman can do. That self-healing iron must be a wonderful seller, as we hear of so many that are succeeding in selling it.

GLOVER & DURETT.

Be Gentle and Kind.

For one soul saved by scolding and taunting, ten are saved by sweetness. For one soul saved by fear of hell, ten are saved by thought of the love of God. A gentle voice and a smiling face make a religion beautiful to the miserly and a sinful, where-as gloomy looks and a harsh or commanding manner make religion seem to be a thing to be avoided. Do you wish to draw souls to God? Then let your souls reflect his love. Be gentle, sweet, be patient. Practical people may condemn you, but only thus can you imitate Jesus.—CHRISTIAN UPLOOK.
